CHAPEL

#21, March 5, 1973

Chapel leadership this week will be under the direction of Tom Hamilton, Terry Lindvall, Paul Thoreen and Jim Watt.

Tuesday ALUMNI DAY - Dr. Glenn Barker
Wednesday Dr. Francis Steele, noted archaeologist, educator and minister. General Secretary of North Africa Mission.
Thursday Student Worship led by above team of seniors. This will be a great service of praise, some real singing with spiritual vitamins to prepare us for examinations.
Friday Dr. Robert Munger

TUESDAY, MARCH 6 IS ALUMNI DAY. Approximately 60 alumni and their spouses will be on campus to visit chapel and classes and to receive intellectual stimulation. You are encouraged to participate. Introduce yourself and get to know one or more of these former students. We will lunch together in the Refectory. If you are not on meal arrangement, the cost of the lunch is $1.50. If you brown bag it, please sit at a table with alumni and faculty for an interchange of ideas. Dr. Hubbard will speak in the chapel at 1:00 and Dr. Munger will lead the Fuller family around the Lord's table to close the day by 2:50 p.m. Larry Burr

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING WEDNESDAY 7:00 A.M. KREYSSLER HALL. DT

What REALLY Happened at the GREAT FULLER GET-AWAY? Who was the victim of the Dean's vengeful wrath? See and hear the truth as slides of the retreat are shown Wednesday after Chapel. RT

Today, in the Cameron Highlands in Malaysia, Rich Hong is opening a month long leadership training course. Malaysian friends donated food and money to enable students from five institutions to attend. Please pray for Rich Hong and his colleagues as they lead these crucial meetings. Prayer for the Fuller Missionary Interns in the Prayer Chapel Wednesday, 1:00 p.m. RT

Thursday immediately after Chapel, "Our Prisons Today" a 15 minute film produced by Job Therapy, will be shown. This deals with what Mr. Dick Simmons spoke to us about in Chapel on Tuesday last week. Dave Adams

SUMMER INTERN PROGRAM - Bel Air Church is offering an intern program for a limited number of seminarians in June, July and August. Ministry options for the summer would include hospital chaplaincy, work in poverty areas, youth programs, et cetera. Close fellowship with the "body" of interns and periodic pastoral input from the church pastors will be integral to the program. In some instances a small salary can be provided. Contact Ron Shackelford.

Deadline time: Income Tax, April 15; Thesis, May 15. The I.R.S. may grant extensions but our Registrar can't dueto commencement date. Be sure to graduate when you want by getting your thesis done on time. For free help, ask for the sheet "How To Do A Thesis" at the Library circulation desk. RS

ATTENTION WOMEN OF THE FULLER COMMUNITY: The Women's Institute will be presenting a course this Spring Quarter led by Mrs. Edith Munger and Mr. David Bock, on the subject of communication as it relates to developing counseling skills. We have had a very successful and enjoyable course this Quarter led by Dr. Charles Kraft. We look forward to the Spring Quarter course as this Institute continues to meet needs, especially those of the wives of the Fuller community. Thursday evenings, 7:30-9:30, fee is $10. Pre-register with Debbie Baltrusis, 1761 East Orange Grove, Pasadena, or see her at the final class, March 8. Keep your receipt and bring it to the first class session. CW

Final Plans are being made for the Festival of the Arts in May. If you are interested in helping us plan the aesthetic concept and format, contact Dave Toycen.

Rich Irish will be on campus Tuesday to interview any students interested in a one year internship. See Glory Hees in the Placement Office for details.
